IN MEMORIAM

IN MEMORIAM
In sad but loving memory of Mr. D .W .Carwile, who died one year ago, March 19, 1958.
"God giveth to Man and God taketh away"
It's not God's Will that in the world we shall stay.
This realization we hold in our heart,
The proof is the promise that was made by God.
It's been just a year since your debt you did pay.
But often we pause before the end of the day.
There's an ache in our heart, tho' the time has been brief . .
As we turn to the Lord for the strength for our grief.
As we reminisce over life's short span
We are proud, dad, to have known such a man.
"Thinking of other" was your belief to be right.
May we also also make it our Motto of life.

Notice From Local Doctor

Dr. C. G. O'Brien issued the following important statement this week:

"Dr. Boyce has announced to me that he will give up the practice of medicine in Appomattox. So, please bear with me if I am slow in answering home calls, as I will only be able to make home calls that are unable to come to the office. We are trying hard to get more physicians for this growing area. This is a very large medical field to cover. And it has been very rugged duty for me since the untimely death of Dr. David Christian, III. I am not complaining, nor am I asking for sympathy, but I do ask for your continued cooperation. So, let's all get together and work hard towards the common goal of securing more country doctors for this area."

Ginger Bean Spelling Champ

The Appomattox County Spelling Match was won Monday night by Ginger Bean. Ginger is in the 7th grade at Spout Spring Elementary School. She lives with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M .S .Bean. She will receive a cash award of $25.00 and will also be eligible to compete in the Regional match. After approximately 350 words had been spelled by the contestants, Ginger clinched the top spot by correctly spelling the word "institution," which had been missed by her opponent, and then spelling the next word on the list, "location."

This was outwardly a quiet week on the county political front, as April deadlines neared for candidates to file for county offices. It is understood that the deadline for filing for county offices is 90 days before the July 14 primary election.

C. W. Smith, veteran county clerk, announced that he had filed for re-election .His term, unlike that of other county offices, runs for 8 years instead of 4.

Also announcing for re-election was J. H. O'Brien, veteran Commissioner of Revenue.

At the moment, only one contest is on record for January, that being for the office of Supervisor in Stonewall Magisterial District, where incumbent D. W. Carwile, Jr., is being opposed by Irby Wheeler.

TOWN OFFICES

A Town of Appomattox election will be held June 9, and the filing deadline is 60 days prior thereto. A Mayor and six Councilmen will be elected for two-year terms.

This morning, Mrs. Calvin Robinson also filed as a candidate for the Council. Mrs. Robinson served for six years on the Council, but in a 13-candidate contest two years ago, ran seventh in the balloting.

Garden Clubs Had Workshop

The Appomattox Garden Club presented Mrs. Harold Hemingway, of Ashland, Va., in a Flower Arrangement Workshop on Monday, March 23, at 4 P. M., at the Elementary School. Mrs. Frank Carr, of Richmond, a former member of the Appomattox Club, introduced the speaker. Mrs. Hemingway is a National Accredited Flower Show Judge, a member of the Richmond Council of Garden Clubs, a successful horticulturist, and is much in demand in the Richmond area for such Garden Club programs.

The program consisted of Kodachrome slides of the step-by-step instructions on how to make flower arrangements. The methods, mechanics, and combination of materials used to make each flower arrangement were uniquely shown on the screen. Mrs .Hemingway also demonstrated line and design in two flower arrangements she made, one of calla lilies in a black Chinese container, and the other of daffodils, forsythia branches and weathered wood. During the workshop period, the speaker assisted members in making flower arrangements.

Town States Its Position On Operation of Parking Meters

WEEKLY NEWS LETTER FROM MAYOR

To The Citizens of
The Town and County of Appomattox:

Since September of 1957, when I took office as the Mayor of the Town of Appomattox, I have tried to discharge the duties of this office to the best of my ability.

It has been my opportunity to serve with a Town Council, who as a body and as individual members have worked hard and diligently to help guide the administration of the Town. There have been some decisions which were made by the majority of the Council that I did not agree with and on the other hand I, as Mayor, have expressed various opinions which they did not agree with. In spite of any conflicts which may have occurred, I respect very highly the opinions of each and every member of the Town Council, and commend them for their sincere work.

One of the greatest differences of opinion that has arisen was the installation of parking meters. I have felt from the beginning that The Town of Appomattox was not ready for parking meters.

I sincerely believe that every member of the Council is ready and willing to carry out the wishes of the majority of the citizens of both the Town and the County, if it is within their power.

Everyone please take a few minutes and read the statement appearing in The Times-Virginian this week which was published by the Mayor and the Council. After reading this statement, if you feel that the parking meters should remain in effect, please take a few minutes and express your opinion, addressing your reply to The Town Manager's Office, and if in turn you feel that the parking meters should be put out of effect then in turn please express your opinion. Your Mayor and Council are very interested in getting the feeling of both the Town and County people. All suggestions will be appreciated and given consideration.

As Mayor, I am taking the liberty of having a Straw Ballot printed in The Times-Virginian. If you do not want to write a letter but had rather mark the ballot for or against the operation of parking meters within the Town of Appomattox, then that will be appreciated. After marking this ballot, please be sure you sign your name, and mail the ballot to the Town Manager's Office. Again, the expressions of both the Town and County citizens will be appreciated. Your counsel and advice on all public matters is welcomed at all times.

Sincerely,
C. T. Moses, Jr.,
Mayor, Town of Appomattox.

JAMERSONS NOW AT NEW WOOD YARD

Appomattox Wood Yard, operated by O. T. Jamerson & Sons, is now open at its new location on Route 460, just west of Appomattox.

Conveniently located on a six-acre yard, this business is one of the most important in this area, and is a major purchaser of wood, ties, logs, etc. They have previously located in the town.

The firm has a new railroad siding, spacious parking area and has excellent arrangements for loading and unloading.

Mr. Oscar Jamerson has been in this business in Appomattox since 1933. Associated with him are his sons, Thomas J. Jamerson and Herbert H .Jamerson.

TO THE CITIZENS OF APPOMATTOX TOWN
AND COUNTY:

When the present Council took office in September, 1957, the question of parking meters, which had been discussed by several previous Councils, arose for consideration. The decision to install parking meters was reached after much deliberation and informal studies by our Council members of other localities of this size making use of parking meters. This decision was made after four months of study and seven meetings of the Council.

The Council felt that the traffic congestion existing at this time was caused to a great degree by management and employees of the various business establishments parking their cars on Main and Church Streets for extended periods of time, sometimes covering an eight hour period. Two years prior to the time of the installation of parking meters the Town acquired a free public parking lot, a facility which was used by very few people. Free public parking space is still provided one-half of a block from Main Street.

It was felt that the installation of parking meters would help alleviate the congestion referred to above, thereby providing parking space for everyone at all times, thus making it easier to transact business in our Town. These meters were installed solely to accomplish this purpose and not as an added source of revenue.

After thirteen months of use a study is now being made to establish loading zones at necessary points.

Since the installation of parking meters we have had many favorable and unfavorable expressions regarding the use of these meters, it is certainly not our wish to do anything to make it difficult or costly to trade in our Town but it is our sincere desire to do everything within our power to make it easier and more convenient to all patrons and merchants. In order that our Town may progress, any suggestions for improvement will be welcomed and given due consideration at all times. Any suggestions may be given or mailed to the Town Manager or any of the undersigned.

A strong and earnest appeal for the prevention of further loss from forest fires was made today by J. C. Hayes, district fire warden. Mr. Hayes was in Appomattox to beg for rigid observance of precautions against fires. He cited that the extreme dry condition of woods and fields made this a most critical situation.

"I beg of everyone, that no more burning be done until there is a good rain. I urge parents to see that children do not have matches," he said.

Several cases were tried in court here yesterday regarding the setting out of fires .Several others are pending and will be tried later. In one case, involving a defendant of Amherst County, the fine was $14.75 and the defendant was ordered to pay suppression costs of $119.84.

In another case, a defendant was fined $14.75, and assessed suppression costs of $19.85.

Mr. Hayes pointed that the loss in forest fires was mounting elsewhere in the state, with reports of sizeable fires in a number of counties.

He went on record as thanking the "Keep Virginia Green" group here working under Instructor H. B. Puck. And he also praised the fine and prompt work done by the Appomattox Volunteer Firemen.

Local firemen have been called out repeatedly during the current dry spell, mostly for brush and field fires. Three alarms came in Tuesday afternoon.

License Tag Application Must Be Properly Prepared

Many applicants for license plates are experiencing difficulty because they are not correctly identifying the name of their insurance companies on their license applications.

Be sure that your application shows the correct and complete name of your insurance company. Do not use the group name of a number of companies. Do not abbreviate as many companies have almost identical names.

If you have any doubt, call your insurance agent before presenting or mailing your application to the Division of Motor Vehicles.
